Thanks for your interest in becoming an authorized Camburg Engineering dealer. Here's a list of items we'll need to review in order to establish your account. Please fax or mail these copies back to us.

- Dealer Application (filled out complete)
- Business License
- Business Card

If you're located in California we will also need these items.

- CA Resale License Form (filled out complete)
- CA Resale License

Your information will be reviewed and upon acceptance you will be notified. In cases where you don't meet our requirements or are in a saturated area we will put you in contact with one of our current distributors.

You may also be required to start-up your account with an initial purchase amount determined by Camburg Engineering.
